O Lord of Hosts,

Apart from you we were utterly lost, a people of unclean lips, hands, and hearts. We still too often stray from your ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have fallen short by leaving undone those things which you command, and we have done those things which you have forbidden.

O Lord, have mercy upon us. Restore all those who are repentant, according to your promises in Christ Jesus our Lord, amen.
